HUSBAND A TRESPASSER

Supreme Court Passes on a Unique Case.

DECIDES AGAINST WIFE

Ordered Husband Off Property Owned in Her Own Right, and Then Indicted Him for Trespass-Several Charters Granted.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MALEIGH, N. C., April 22 .- The North Carolina Supreme Court passed upon a novel issue yesterday in deciding the case of State vs. Alfred Jones from Wake county. It was, as the court declared, a case in which the wife sought indirectly to obtain judicial separation from her husband by criminal action for trespass. Mrs. Jones owned a farm in her own Mrs. Jones owned a farm in her own right. Belleving her husband unfaithful she ordered him to leave the place. He refused to do so, and Mrs. Jones left and indicted him for trespass. A magistrate's rourt convicted him, but the Superior Court held he was not guilty. Now the Supreme Court, in a majority opinion. millims the Superior Court. However, Chief Justice Clark dissents, holding that the husband was guilty of trespass on the ground that the Constitution guarantees to married women full and free title to ground that the Constitution guarantees to married women full and free title to property held in their own right. Justice Montgomery, in writing the majority opinion of the court, says:

"Have we reached the stage of social progress when the sacred relation of husband and wife and the hallowed influences of the home are converted into mere traditions, without power to influence, and ditions without power to influence, and dreams instead of relations? It would seem so to us if we were to hold that the indictment in this case was lawful and

OXFORD, N. C., April 22.—The Superior Court of Granville county is in session at Oxford this week. The famous Gattis-Kligo case, which has attracted much attention over the State and elsewhere, comes up for trial Thursday. The case has been tried twice before in Granville Court, having been carried to the Supreme Court on appeal, and a new trial having been granted each time.

A new railroad has just been built from Dickinson, N. C., to Oxford by the Scaboard Air Line, This road will be of great advantage to Oxford by affording a competing freight line.

The town of Oxford is fast improving. The town of Oxford is fast improving. The town will probably put in water works and electric lights soon, and several new manufacturing enterprises will soon be started.

Judge A. W. Graham is spoken of in connection with the nomination for Governor. He is a son of Hon. William A. Graham, who was Secretary of War in President Filmore's Cabinet. Judge Graham has a large following in North Carcolina.

Indignation at Henderson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HENDERISON, N. C., April 22.—Much indignation has been aroused in this community by a letter signed by M. J. Harris, a negro residing in this town, and published in the "True Reformer," a negro paper edited in Littleton, N. C., whose statements totally disagree with the facts brought out at the investigation before the Mayor and Town Council in regard to the unfortunate shooting affair which occurred on the circus grounds April 9th. Harris says, in his letter, that Bruce used his gun to save himself, while two were shooting at him, and he succeeded in shooting Roberson twice, the bullets taking effect in the abdomen, which proved fatal.

Messrs. Shore and Logan were married and both leave wives and several children. Mr. George was a young single man. Mr, Samuel Moser, one of the owners of the mill, was hurt, but his injuries are not considered serious. The explosion was caused, it is thought, by the engineer and fireman allowing the water to get too low in the boiler.

Mr. George was loading lumber when the explosion occurred. The pressure threw him against a cut-off saw and a plece of the boiler struck his neck, cutting off his head and throwing it up on a pile of lumber several feet away. Mr. Shore was standing at one end of the mill. He was killed by a pile of lumber falling on him. Mr. Logan was scalded to death. The main part of the boiler was blown three hundred feet. A recent report from Springwood concerning the canning industry in Bototourt is thought by those informed on the subject to be very much exaggerated.
This report estimated the number of canneries in the county at 130 and the average pack at 7,000 cases. These figures are too large by one-half. In regard to the value of the tomato crop to the farmers, the report stated that with a fairly good season an acre of ground would produce from $150 to $300 in tomatces. It appears that this industry is being started in many sections of the State, and if the farmers who grow the tomatoes base their hopes of profits on these figures they will be grievously disappointed, as Botetourt farmers are glad to realize one-third as much from their crops.

"Her Wrongs Righted," which was given for the first time on any stage at the Bijou last Monday, is now running at that playhouse with all the smooth-ness of a year-old production.

There has been a great rush of advance orders for seats for the performance to be given at the Academy on Friday week next by Joseph Jefferson. The eminent actor comes here in "Rip Van Winkle," his immortal creation, and there is every present indication that his business will reach the high water mark, as it always does. The seats will be on sale next Monday morning at the Academy box office.

Nellie McHenry and her own company will be the attraction at the Bijou next week in M'Liss, a dramatization of the celebrated novel of that name.

Robert Waitt, the enterprising adver-tising agent of the Academy, has been engaged as assistant treasurer of the annusement enterprises at Buckroe for the summer season by Manager Charles Rex.

Among the famous stars and plays already booked by Manager Leath to appear at the Academy next season are Madam Patti, E. H. Bothern, Richald Mansfield, David Warfeld, May Irwin, Stuart Robson, Lesile Carter, Oils Skinner, The Crystal Silpper, The Gounty Girl and The Darling of the Gods. Mr. Leath has sixteen more attractions on his list than ever before at this time of the year.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE BATTLE ABBEY

Favorable Comment on Committee's Action-Mr. V. Newton Resigns.

City Hall devotees, local politicians and patriotic citizens of Richmond—men and women—are agog over the action of the Finance Committee in recommending to the Council that $50,000 be appropriated out of the treasury next year for the Confederate Battle Abbey, which is to be constructed in this city at a cost exceeding $200,000. On all sides favorable comment has been heard, and it is sincerely hoped the Council will approve the recommendation.

The news that the Battle Abbey will be so constructed as to furnish an adequate auditorium for the city has been received with much pleasure, as it will fill a long felt want in this direction.

It is the purpose of Messrs Pollock chairman; Fergusson and Anderson, the special committee from the Common Council, which is to request Alderman James R. Gordon to withdraw his resignation, to R. Gordon to withdraw his resignation, to wait upon Mr. Gordon to-morrow, when each man will individually urge the gentleman to reconsider his action.

However, Mr. Gordon is determined to quit the body, and it is hardly probable the effort of the committee will meet with success.

Alderman M. Fill Seay, of Clay Ward who has been quite ill at his home for some time pest, was slightly better yes-terday. It is hoped he will be sufficiently well to attend the next meeting of the Board, his prolonged sickness being a source of regret to his many friends.

At a meeting of the James River Committee yesterday, composed of members of the City Council and gentlemen from the city at large, Chairman William H. Curtis reported that he had received the resignation of Mr. Virginius Newton as a member of the body, who retires owing to the pressure of outside business and ill health. The resignation will be forwarded to the Council.

Accompanying the resolution was a let-to the Council.

Accompanying the resolution was a letter from the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce suggesting Mr. F. C. Ebel, formerly president of the Common Council, as the proper person to succeed to the place made vacant by the reciprostic of Mr. Newyon. Mr. Ebel resignation of Mr. Newton. Mr. Ebel will doubtless be elected by the Council in joint session.

In joint session.

Primarily, the object of the meeting yesterday which was held on board the city's tug, "Thomas Cunningham, St.," was for the purpose of inspecting the work which the government is now doing in James River and considering the condition at "Dutch Gap," where the government is willing to make a large expenditure for improvement if the city will furnish three desired acres of land.

It is the purpose of the government to make such improvement as will give a clear view of the river from either side of the Gap, thereby making navigation more certain and quite safe. The committee requested Mr. Yonge, the government engineer, to make a map of the land needed, after which the property will be acquired by the city and turned over to the government. The land is now owned by Captain G. Watt Taylor, and he will be given $100 an acre for the property.

APPEAL OF

Asks Minister of War for Reopening of His Case.

A MOST GRAPHIC LETTER

Letter is Couched in a Highly Dramati Style Which is Likely to Make It One of the Notable Papers in the Case.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS April 22.—Alfred Dreyfus has submitted to Minister of War Andre a lengthy letter, in which he earnestly asks for a reopening of his case by means of an investigation by the minister as the supreme head of military justice.

The first part of the letter is an earnest plea that the court which condemned him at Rennes was improperly influenced first by the annotated document ascribed to Emperor William, and second, by the false testimony of one of the witnesses, Czernuski.

Dreyfus recalls in graphic terms the long series of horrors to which he had been subjected. The letter throughout is couched in a highly drametto style, which is likely to make it one of the notable papers in the case. It refers to Esterhazy as one "who stands before the entire world as the

It refers to Esterhary as one "who stands before the entire world as the culprit."

The letter continues:
"In constant hope of the eventful legal revision, I have reassembled little by little all the divergent elements of testimony contributing to my conviction. I have sounded calumnies and falsehoods. I have remained silent with the firm conviction that justice would surely have its day of triumph. The victim of criminal tactics and violation of the law, twice committed against me, I now address myself to the supreme chief of military justice, and, supporting myself by new facts which have been elicited, and by the existence of the pretended bordeueau annotated by Empeor William, I beg lo ask that you institute an inquiry, first, upon the uses made of this false document at Rennes, and the consequences it produced on those rendering judgment; second, upon the false and fraudulent testimony of Crurnuski at Rennes."

After a referential sufficiation the latter is signed "Alfred Dreyfus."
